Company Philosophy

'Classic with attitude' would best describe Eric Lysdahl's style. With a penchant for rooms with a historical reference, Eric combines various period styles & cultural references in unexpected ways to create spaces that have patina and warmth with a distinctly metropolitan flavor.

Areas of Expertise/Recent Projects

Current projects include the renovation & decoration of a Jacobean style manor house in Connecticut, an historic Palladian style mansion in Wetschester County, NY, a Japanese inspired Arts & Crafts style home in Bridgehampton, a grand apartment in The Riverhouse, a flat on Hyde Park in London, and special events for a luxury resort in the West Indies.He has also completed the renovation & decoration of his own Federal period country home in Upstate, NY which recently appeared in Traditional Home magazine.
