Company Philosophy

We apply our experience, knowledge and creativity to each project within the context of the clients' vision and goals. Listening carefully, we also read between the lines and allow the program to evolve in a collaborative process and do our utmost to exceed expectations, while exercising care and fiscal responsibility.As a result, our practice has thrived for over 25 years on commissions from repeat clients, and their referrals.

Areas of Expertise/Recent Projects

Recent projects include a new contemporary home in Big Tujunga Canyon, major renovations/additions to three English Cottage style homes in historic districts in Los Angeles and Pasadena, the addition to and remodel of a colonial home in Brentwood, and ranch style homes in San Marino, Pacific Palisades, La Canada, and Encino. In progress is a contemporary remodel/renovation of a mid-century home in Palm Springs.
