Company Philosophy

Miro Art Inc. provides the highest level of decorative interior artwork to exclusive clientele who appreciate artistry and supreme craftsmanship. Founded in 1981, we serve the most distinguished interior decorators, homeowner and collectors throughout the country. Projects range from creating a trompe l'oeil Pompeian gallery and a faux marquetry floor for a Park Avenue apartment, to restoring the 18th Century ceiling and gilding the crown molding in the Blue Room of the White House in Washington DC. With a dedication to perfection, we are known for exceeding our client's expectations.

Areas of Expertise/Recent Projects

Decorative Painting: We perform decorative painting in a wide range of styles, including fresco, mural and trompe l'oeil in acrylic, oil or water base.
Decorative Finishes: We utilize intricate painting techniques to imitate materials such as marble, wood, paper, stone, metal, fabric, animal and fish skin and much more. Our finishes can be elegant, opulent, dramatic or whimsical.
Conservation & Restoration: We bring a strong background of European training and experience to our conservation and restoration services which encompass:

- •Old paintings on canvas and on walls
- •Sculpture in stone, wood or plaster
- •French Polish on wood (ex. Library)
- •Gilded and painted furniture (including Louis XIV & XV), mirrors and frames
- •We restore museum-quality pieces for private collectors and auction houses such as Sotheby's
