The Cultured Canine

Company Philosophy

Imagine taking your dog to visit friends, knowing she is housetrained, chew trained and delightfully well behaved. Imagine a leisurely stroll in the park on leash with no pulling or jumping. Too good to be true? Not so!
The Cultured Canine uses only dog-friendly methods—derived from leading-edge research into canine behavior—to strengthen your dog's basic skills and to change problem behaviors. The result? A happy dog and exquisite manners. We belong to APDT , are CPDT-KA and hold a highly respected certification from the San Francisco SPCA Academy for Dog Trainers, considered the "Harvard" of schools for dog trainers.

Areas of Expertise/Recent Projects

Our services include private, in-home dog training as well as board & train for toy breed dogs to teach housetraining and pet manners.
The Cultured Canine visits clients in Westchester, Manhattan and the area surrounding Greenwich, CT.
