Company Philosophy

Few possessions in life hold more meaning and deep emotion than your home. From your family's morning routine to the last thing you see at night, and every significant moment in between, your home deserves to reflect your distinctive taste and the lifestyle you lead. Scordio Construction understands that your home is central to your quality of life and builds luxurious custom environments that provide the ultimate in creativity, comfort and convenience.
As a leader in home construction and renovation throughout the New York metropolitan area for over 25 years, Scordio Construction has helped thousands of your friends, family and neighbors realize their vision.
Working in concert with many of the region's most reputable architects and designers, Scordio Construction orchestrates the process of creating settings that are harmonious. Our results can be seen in the numerous accolades we have received in the media, as well as the valuable referrals we receive from our loyal clients.
Whether your style is classical, traditional, contemporary, country, modern or uniquely eclectic, Scordio Construction can complete your project with quality craftsmanship and dedication to detail that simply no other firm can provide.
Let Scordio Construction craft your dream…
