

Doreen Chambers Interiors

Company Philosophy

While always guided by the tastes and needs of her clients, Doreen loves and is often inspired by the classical, translating it to a contemporary viewpoint. Structural harmony and focused editing are, to her, important elements of any successfully realized space. While emphasizing her signature style of sophisticated relaxed elegance, Doreen customizes every design to meet her clients' specific preferences.

Areas of Expertise/Recent Projects

From being architect Peter Marino's assistant and studying at the New York School of Interior Design, Doreen went on to establish Doreen Chambers Interiors in 2001. She has successfully completed numerous high-end residential projects in Manhattan, Brooklyn, New Jersey, Houston and South Florida. Named one of the Top 25 Young Designers by House Beautiful Magazine Doreen has also been featured on LXTV's Open House and LXTV's George to the Rescue.
