Company Philosophy

We believe in homes with emotion and the power of natural light in a modern sense of space. We believe in a simple palette of natural materials and the power of antiques to convey history. We know that classical proportions hold the key to beauty, and a little romance is a good thing.

Areas of Expertise/Recent Projects

Steve Giannetti is a renowned architect who specializes in the unique combination of classical and modern architecture. Since founding the firm in 1994 he has designed homes around the world for clients in nearly every architectural style. Steve is now working on homes in California, France, Connecticut, and Nashville.Brooke Giannetti runs the company's interior design studio and is the author of the design blog, Velvet and Linen. She and Steve are the Authors of the book Patina Style (2011), as well as their second book, Patina Farm (2016), which highlights their home in Ojai, CA. The firm's work has been published in Veranda, The New York Times, Milieu, Santa Barbara Magazine, and C Magazine, as well as several other publications. Together they own the store Giannetti Home, located in Los Angeles, CA which also functions as their studio. Specializing in custom furniture and imported antiques, the store is focused on offering products and visuals in the couple's signature "Patina Style".
