

Master Craftsman Decorators

Company Philosophy

Our firm specializes in bespoke draperies and Upholstery. Our expert Craftsmen take the time to fabricate each piece to the client's exact specifications. No detail is overlooked. We use traditional methods on our upholstery and draperies and the finest materials to ensure every item is of the highest quality. We also have an in house upholstery showroom so every client can feel what their piece will feel like when they receive it as well as alter details to their specifications. If it's not in our showroom we can match any style. It is important to our firm that each project is discussed in as much detail as possible and with as much input from our client's as possible. This ensures everyones expectations are met. We pride ourselves on our reputation and the amount of referrals we receive from happy clients is the proof of our quality.
