Company Philosophy

For over 30 years, John Mauser has been servicing upscale clients. John offers cleaning, Fiber-Shield® protection, restoration and troubleshooting with quality detailed service. It is very important to never lose sight of the respect of a client's home and furnishings.
John has a wide range of high-end clients with jobs that go from large to small. In addition, John has exclusives with many high-end design and architect firms, servicing their clients in the Tri-State area and out of state.
John has experience strictly with high-end clients. He takes pride in his high level of quality and services, providing special attention to customers' needs with an artisan approach.

Areas of Expertise/Recent Projects

Our specialty also includes rug restoration and ongoing maintenance of estates, large homes, brownstones and second homes. We will meet designers, estate managers and staff upon request to guide and instruct on troubleshooting and proper care of delicate and expensive textiles and antique rugs. We can also Fiber-Shield® fabrics to protect the contents of newly renovated or furnished homes or apartments. We have 30+ years of experience and many high-end referrals that we can provide upon request!
