Company Philosophy

Integkral Design & Construction LLC occupies a unique niche among premium construction and contracting firms. It combines the personalized service and direct contact to partners found at small firms with the comprehensive skill set and experience level of a large operation. Under the direction of Principal George Kral, who holds a masters degree in architecture, Integkral has established itself as a major player with the muscle and expertise to comfortably manage large high-end multi-million dollar residential projects from Park Avenue apartments to Westchester estates. Integkral is able to share the architect's vision and aesthetic and execute projects with flawless construction techniques and craftsmanship. Attention to details, accessibility and rapid response make clients feel comfortable and confident every step of the way as their project proceeds within budget and on deadline. Integkral: We build trust.
