

Annette English and Associates

Company Philosophy

Named as a top interior designer in Los Angeles by The Franklin Report and a “National Tastemaker” by Luxe Interiors + Design, Annette English is celebrated for the bold and original residential and commercial interiors she creates. Annette’s firm, Annette English + Associates, has enjoyed a 20+ year reputation as the go-to design house for the business world and Hollywood elite. Annette’s achievements can be seen in a variety of homes and businesses from those of film and music stars to high-ranking CEOs—all of whom luxuriate in Annette’s innate ability to manage every aspect of even intensely complex projects.

Her uncompromising dedication to clients has earned Annette a reputation that extends far beyond her home base of Southern California. She and her team of high end interior designers in Los Angeles, have designed an amazing array of interiors across the United States and around the world... an expansive 10-acre estate in Malibu, a jewel of an apartment in Paris, a rustic beach getaway in Australia, and a 36,000 sq. ft. designer Beverly Hills Chateau, to name but a few. No matter the size of the house or style of its client, Annette’s true calling is to realize her clients’ vision and turn their homes into an expression of their lives.

Areas of Expertise/Recent Projects

AE+A is currently working on a 16,000 sq. ft. French chateau-inspired residence. This project is coming to realization with the esteemed architect Richard Landry. On this magnificent property, AE+A will infuse a touch of modern comfort into the interiors for a growing family looking to create their one and only dream home.

Annette English and Associates

