Company Philosophy

Most important is to understand the look the designer is after. This may require us to do a mockup, but it is well worth the time. We enjoy a challenge.

Areas of Expertise/Recent Projects

Recent projects include:
 •Executive offices and showrooms for a well-known fashion designer in Manhattan •A 27th floor apartment overlooking Central Park •A celebrity's Malibu compound which includes four structures •A rustic vacation home in Jackson Hole, Wyoming •A Malibu home with a Hawaiian theme •An ultramodern concrete house built into a hillside in Montecito, California
