Scott Salvator

Company Philosophy

From its inception in 1992, Scott Salvator Inc. has served an elite international clientele and specializes in luxury residential work, hotels and historical restorations. The firm provides couture residential and commercial interiors dictated by the client's style, the architecture of the interior, and the location of the residence. The firm is renowned for its use of color and for providing eclectic designs, from continental to deco, from traditional to modern. The designs have a livable formality and elegance emanating from understated details of almost invisible extravagance.
