Company Philosophy

Linda Ashley founded her firm in 1996 to provide dedicated personal service to a limited number of discriminating clients. Classically inspired, she is directed by the individual tastes of each client and their diversity in styles. Her sophisticated design sensibility brings to each project a fresh, understated perspective allowing her to create timeless spaces perfectly capturing her clients' dreams and desires.

Areas of Expertise/Recent Projects

Current projects include a golf retreat in Sea Island, Georgia; the renovation of a classic John Volk property in Palm Beach, FL; and a tour bus for a renowned country singer in Nashville, Tennessee. Linda's work has been published in The Palm Beach Post, The Palm Beach Daily News, The Miami Herald, Town & Country, Florida Design Magazine and Palm Beach Cottages and Homes. She is also featured in the book "Southern Rooms". In 2003, Linda was recognized as a Designer of Distinction by the Design Center of the Americas and has been an Allied Member of ASID since 1988.
