Wahab Construction

Company Philosophy

Since 1992, Wahab Construction has offered full service general contracting and construction management. The driving force behind this company is its dedication to quality management, materials, and execution of construction. The firm works closely with leaders in Architecture & Design to maintain the aesthetic image clients seek and enjoy. Exacting attention to detail and cost-effective work is achieved through hands-on management at every level. The Wahab team is made up of highly trained personnel: architects, project managers and subcontractors, who bring valuable experience in all areas of construction and design. Owner, Walid Wahab is fully involved in all daily activities of his company and in each project; hence delivering the personalized service that clients deserve and expect.
The company is a leader in providing superb craftsmanship and constructing sophisticated and challenging residential and commercial showcase projects in South Florida.

Areas of Expertise/Recent Projects

We specialize in high-end residential, commercial, and corporate interiors, as well as exclusive homes from the ground up. Our project locations can be found throughout South Florida including Miami Beach, Miami, Coconut Grove and Coral Gables.
