

Ferguson & Shamamian Architects

Company Philosophy

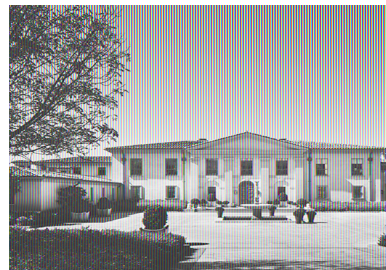

The firm was founded on an enthusiasm for traditional architecture and a desire to creatively synthesize historical styles, regional character, and contemporary living. Individual project needs are interpreted through a strong commitment to artistic integrity, a passion for detail, the use of fine materials, exceptional workmanship and consummate personal service.

Areas of Expertise/Recent Projects

The firm's core practice is the design of custom residences, including city apartments, suburban houses and country estates. Projects include:

- 25,000 square foot landmarked house and outbuildings in Palm Beach, Florida

Ferguson & Shamamian Architects

Publications & Products

