Does the idea of finding a carpenter in New York City conjure up visions of Murphy Brown's omnipresent Eldin? Or, scarier yet, memories of that Tom Hanks movie The Money Pit? Relax and let the Franklin Report (Allgood Press; $22.50) guide you through the ins and outs of carpentry, plumbing, interior design, and much, much, more. Offering smart, concise reviews and ratings of the city's top homes service providers, the Zagat-like Franklin Report will also lead you to the perfect window washer, the best lighting purveyor, and flooring favorites. It's a must have for any city dweller with a hankering for home improvement. Available at booksellers citywide or visit www.franklinreport.com.
