THE FRANKLIN REPORT

Looking for a decorator that practices space-friendly feng shui or an exterminator that forgoes toxic chemicals? What about someone to create the trompe l'oeil you've been itching for? Then pick up The Franklin Report, a book (and website) complete with ratings and write-ups broken down into categories from architects to window washers. As the Zagat of New York's home services, assessments are based on surveys and interviews with clients. $22.50.—SB
